Released to coincide with the café's 10-year anniversary, Bitton: A French-inspired café cookbook is part cookbook and part biography. The book draws on David's career as a classically trained French chef and pays homage to the great influences on his life — his wife's Indian-South African heritage, his grandfather's Moroccan history and his grandmother's Turkish childhood.
Beautifully produced, the book captures the essence of the café and David's cuisine.
