

Best Weekend - The Daily Telegraph
26 February - 4 March 2011

WHAT'S NEW

TAP INTO THIS

Stocking your cupboard with products such as David Bitton's black olive tapenade in a jar ($9.99 for 190g), ensures you always have a gourmet deli selection at your fingertips. Toss spoonfuls through roasted vegetables, add to a pizza or spruce up a cold meat sandwich. Voila! For stockists, call 9519 5111.

★ COFFEE SHOPS

Head to a family-friendly coffee shop for a mum and dad treat that baby can enjoy too.

Older kids can feel grown-up with a babycino, and littlies won't mind checking out a new space. Every neighbourhood has them, so ask some other parents in your area where they like to go.

Lilies On The Park in Bicentennial Park at Homebush Bay is a legendary spot with plenty of space for kids to tear around in.

For indoor activities try Bitton Gourmet Cafe (36-37A Copeland St, Alexandria) which has a play room, or Kelby's Cafe (293 Marrickville Rd, Marrickville) where you can book a mother's room with comfy sofas for

Taste - The Daily Telegraph
Tuesday 1 February 2011