

Le'Petit Gourmet News

Dear David & Camilla,

In this edition of Le'Petit Gourmet Trading's eNews we present a great new cook book, let you know whats been going on in the Food Scene and highlight some fresh spring goodies.

NEWS

David Bitton has released his highly anticipated new cook book! After months of hard work and years of passion it is finished and it is exceptional!

  A French-inspired café cookbook David Bitton	Bitton Gourmet Café and Grocer is where exotic traditions of food have come together. As family heritage and memories inspired David's love of food and passion for cooking, the Bitton cookbook is a tangible way people can enjoy creating their very own memories of cooking for family and friends. More than just a cookbook, each page vividly gives the provenance of every recipe, following David Bitton's amazing culinary journey. There is something for everyone, from simple, rustic breakfast dishes to more extravagant dinner party suggestions.
---	---

Here's the chance to enjoy five-star food that is accessible, focusing on fresh ingredients and tantalising flavours. Filled with Bitton favourites and the dishes that David enjoys cooking at home, Bitton is a must-have for anyone who loves good food.

David's books will retail for $39.95 and be available from Le'Petit Gourmet mid November.